

HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

Established March 4, 1885, and Made Famous in the Celebrated Story of "Jonathan and His Continent," by Max O'Rell.

SPENCER COOPER, Owner and Editor.

"Of a Noisy World, With News From All Nations Lumbering at His Back."

$1.00 A YEAR, Always in Advance.

TENTH YEAR.

HAZEL GREEN, WOLFE COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1894.

NUMBER 6.

A * BIG * DROP.

When you come to Lexington drop in and see us, and we will show you the biggest stock of

CLOTHING.

Hats and Furnishings for Men and Boys—Wholesale and Retail—you ever saw.

If you can't come write to us and tell us what you want.

Men's Suits from $5 up.

Boys' Suits from $1.25 up.

You will make more than your expenses, though, if you come in person and make your selections.

ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE,

M. KAUFMAN & CO.

54 E. Main Street,

LEXINGTON, KY.

MERCHANTS' (H) JOB (H) LOT (H) HOUSE,

WHOLESALE ONLY.

137 and 139 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Big Drives in

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS, ETC.

Send for our Price List.

H. & G. FEDER, PRICES

165 & 167 Race Street, CINCINNATI, O.

The leading house for FANCY DRY GOODS, FURNISHING GOODS and NOTIONS. Always have Big Drives. Special attention to Mail Orders.

Clark County National Bank

MAIN STREET, WINCHESTER, KY.

JOHN W. BEAN, President.

B. F. CURTIS, Cashier.

Capital, $200,000. Surplus, $100,000.

Undivided Profits, $35,000.

Organized 1865, being the oldest bank in the county. Collections made on all points, and your business solicited.

Clay City National Bank,

CLAY CITY, KY.

Capital, $50,000.

FLOYD DAY,

J. F. COX,

President.

Cashier.

No Bank in Eastern Kentucky has better vaults, nor better facilities for keeping your account. Managed entirely by home people who know you and who are always ready to accommodate you.

Money to loan on reasonable rates. Call on us.

Traders Deposit Bank,

MT. STERLING, KY.

CAPITAL, $200,000. SURPLUS, $30,000.

J. M. BIGSTAFF, President.

G. L. KIRKPATRICK, Vice President.

W. W. THOMPSON, Cashier.

We respectfully solicit the business of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky. A general banking business done. Give us a chance to send you a bank book, your checks, and loan you money when in need.

W. W. THOMPSON, Cash.

Winchester Bank,

WINCHESTER, KY.

N. H. WITHERSPOON, President.

R. D. HUNTER, Cashier.

Paid up Capital, $200,000.00.

Surplus, $60,000.00.

This Bank solicits the accounts of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky, and offers its customers every facility, and the most liberal terms within the limits of legitimate banking.

VICTOR + BOGAERT,

Manufacturing Jeweler.

17 E. Short Street,

LEXINGTON, KY.

Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry. Reliable Goods. Fair Dealing and Bottom Prices. All Goods and Work Guaranteed.

Giving Himself Away.

She stood beside the platform scale, Her lover by her side, Her dimpled hand she placed in his, He murmured: "Be my bride."

With downcast eye and fairing voice Love's summons to obey, She dropped a nickel in the slot And gave herself A WEIGH.

WHAT IS HILL?

He Trims His Sails For Every Wind That Blows.

Savoyard Puts Him in the School of Which Van Buren and Weed Were Leaders.

It would be well enough for the Hon. David B. Hill, the Democrat, or rather the ex-Democrat, to take an observation and ascertain just where he is "at." When a Democratic statesman makes a great speech on the leading political issue of the day, and that speech is most rapturously applauded by Republicans, and most severely censured by all his fellow-Democrats, we begin to ask, What sort of freak is this? Those Republicans who advocated Democratic principles and supported Democratic candidates in 1884 were called muggumps, and it would be well enough for the lexicographers to set about the coining of a name for those Democrats who advocate Republican doctrine in 1894. David B. Hill belongs to that school of New York politics founded by Aaron Burr, and of which Martin Van Buren, the Democrat, and Thurlow Weed, the Whig, were the most conspicuous exemplars. He is a Talleyrand, not a Bismarck. He is the practical politician, who trims his sails for every wind that blows.

It almost required a surgical operation to get his silver views out of him, such views as they were, and a poor lot they were. What little he knows about the tariff is of the Randall order. He is that political monstrosity, a Democrat who believes in paternalism. Nine Democrats out of every ten object to the Wilson bill because it contains too much protection. Hill objects to it because it contains too little protection.

As for the income tax, the soundest of Democrats are disagreed both as to its expediency and its orthodoxy. If I were to make a revenue bill, I should not have an income tax in it except in very modified form. But there is an overwhelming sentiment in Democratic communities, even at the east, in favor of the income tax. I don't believe it is "good politics." I do believe its operation will be unpopular, even in communities that are now unanimously for it. Wiser men than I, though, think the income tax a master stroke of policy, and they may be right. There ought to be some sort of tax of that nature, however; but it ought to be a tax on franchises and inheritances. The Hon. Uriel S. Hall, of Missouri, a practical farmer and a cultured versatile statesman, spoke as follows on this subject in the house of representatives: "Coming down to the question of principle, can you ever perfect a revenue tariff in any government without an income tax? My able colleague from Missouri (Mr. Tarsney) dwelt in some measure upon this matter. I notice in the Washington Post of this morning an extract from the New York Sun, in which that organ denounces the income tax for the reason that the revenue from the income tax law in England had varied during a period of twenty years; this writer cites the fact that during this period the rates of taxation varied from sixteen pence on the pound to two pence, the revenue derived by the government varying from 5,500,000 pounds to 17,500,000 pounds. I quote the article merely from memory. Now, I say that this flexibility of the income tax is one of the greatest arguments in its favor. I do not believe that any party on earth, that any man who is a patriot, wants to see the business interests of this country hazarded and the obligation of contracts impaired by changes in the tariff every two or four years. "I asked an eminent member of the ways and means committee whether he could even in theory conceive of a tax which would give a proper revenue for 1895 and 1896, which would not produce a surplus of at least twenty-five millions in 1897 and 1898. He answered, as every student of that subject must answer: 'No.' Without an income tax the only method at your command for producing the proper flexibility of revenue to meet the flexible demands of the government, without disturbing the business interests of the country, is to change your tariff schedule every two years. I am not one of those who believe that the present business depression is due to threatened tariff legislation, but rather that with a view to the present tariff legislation fastened upon the people with increasing and ever-growing burdens until its final culmination in the McKinley act of 1890, which has brought around with marked severity the present financial crisis under which we are now suffering.

"I believe that tariff legislation or threatened tariff legislation must always have some tendency to impair the obligation of contracts, to disconcert business, to bring about business distress. And I believe that no party that has at heart the real interest of the country can afford to say: 'We will change the tariff legislation of the government every two years, and thereby run the risk of impairing the obligation of contracts and disturbing business interests.' "By this kind of a tax, a tax upon incomes, the English government was enabled to pass through the Crimean war; and the man who wrote that article in the New York Sun did not say it was during that war, but the dates show it. And the fact that the rate varied from 16d. to the pound to 7d. to the pound, and 4d. to the pound and down to 2d. to the pound showed what it showed the English was enabled, by increasing the income tax, to pass through the Crimean war with very little disturbance of the taxing system of the government from the internal revenue or from the tariff taxation; and they were able, when the crisis passed, to bring it down, and bring nothing but good will and gratitude from all classes of the people."

There is much in the argument that an income tax is more inquisitorial than other taxes. We all remember the Tilden case. A corporation tax, and inheritance tax is far less inquisitorial and such a tax should be levied in order to avoid periods of surplus and of deficits in the treasury. But for good or for ill we are going to have the income tax. Hill assails it because it is in a bill that he thinks has too much free trade in it. There is the secret of his hostility. That is all he knows about the income tax being un-American. There is a modified income tax in New York now. Why did Hill not have that repealed when he was the boss of the state?

A little over two years ago Mr. Hill made a blunder. He held a "snap" convention. A few days later there was a mutter that came up from the country. Soon it became a growl, then a roar, then it increased to the volume of reverberating thunder, and finally it was tremendous enough to silence all the bombardsments of Sebastopol. Perhaps Mr. Hill is repeating himself. His speech was carefully prepared; it was deliberate; but its motive was so transparent that it did no execution except in the recall. He began with an attack on Gresham—who is sound on the tariff question at any rate, and the best hated man on the part of monopolistic corporations in the

WHEN IN LEXINGTON

MARCH'S,

24 W. Main Street,

FOR

Furniture,

CARPETS

AND STOVES.

MONEY SAVED

ON EVERY ARTICLE.

American Union. One would infer that Hill never appointed a Republican to office in his life; but I read in a New York paper the other day a list of distinguished and leading Republicans appointed to office by Hill, while he was governor. There are a set of men in New York known as "Hill Republicans." Low Sessions, who played such a miserable part against Roscoe Conkling in 1881, is one of them. No wonder Hill puts himself at the head of the Republicans and leads a charge against the confirmation of a justice of the supreme court because the gentleman nominated had declared in a public speech that the McKinley law was not only inexpedient, but unconstitutional.

The states' rights part of Senator Hill's speech was admirable as a political essay. But its conclusions were all wrong. To say that it is hereby for congress to levy a tax on the rich for the exclusive purpose of securing revenue to the government, while it is all right for that same congress to levy another tax on the great mass of consumers, is an interpretation of states' rights that defeats nearly all individual rights. If I wish to purchase a hat the Englishman stands ready to sell it to me for $3; but McKinley steps in and says "if you buy that hat you shall pay a fine at the custom house of $2," and thus it is that two hat manufacturers, constituents of Senator Hill, levy a tribute of $2 upon every man of the millions who buy their hats. This is nothing but flat robbery. Then why should not these two bloated monopolists pay a part of their swag into the public treasury in the way of an income tax? What applies to hats applies to thousands of other articles taxed by McKinley. This is it that has made socialism rampant in America. We impose a tax to "protect" labor. The manufacturer looks out that "protected" labor, and sends to Europe for other labor, found in the slums, where anarchy breeds political and social pestilence. This is what has made of Pennsylvania a political and social volcano, liable at any moment to erupt and play the very devil, not only with Pennsylvania, but with the whole union.

Nowhere else on the globe, not in Italy, not in Russia, is the distance between the rich and the poor so great as in the protected state of Pennsylvania. This is the fruit of protection, root and branch, the whole union will be Pennsylvaniaized. Coxey's army would be a reality—a terrible reality, an avenging and a destroying reality—"Savoyard," in Courier-Journal.

The reputation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, as a blood medicine, is maintained by daily cures.

C. B. ROSS, JR., & CO.

LEXINGTON.

We have an elegant assortment of

NOVELTIES

— IN —

Dress Goods, Silks

— AND —

KID GLOVES.

When in Lexington don't fail to give us a call.

Masonville and Lonsdale Cotton, 7½c yd.

Best Calicos, 4½c yd.

Lancaster Apron Gingham, 4½c per yd.

We are Sole Agents for

Foster's Kid Gloves,

Featherbone Corsets

— AND —

Standard Patterns.

C. B. ROSS, JR. & CO.

Lexington.

HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

Established March 4, 1885, and Made Famous in the Celebrated Story of "Jonathan and His Continent," by Max O'Rell.

SPENCER COOPER, Owner and Editor.

"Of a Noisy World, With News From All Nations Lumbering at His Back,"

$1.00 A YEAR, Always in Advance.

TENTH YEAR.

HAZEL GREEN, WOLFE COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1894.

NUMBER 6.

A * BIG * DROP.

When you come to Lexington drop in and see us, and we will show you the biggest stock of CLOTHING,

Hats and Furnishings for Men and Boys—Wholesale and Retail—you ever saw.

If you can't come write to us and tell us what you want.

Men's Suits from $5 up.

Boys' Suits from $1.25 up.

You will make more than your expenses, though, if you come in person and make your selections.

ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE,

M. KAUFMAN & CO.

54 E. Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

MERCHANTS' JOB LOT HOUSE.

WHOLESALE ONLY.

137 and 139 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Big Drives in

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS, ETC.

Send for our Price List.

H. & G. FEDER, PRICES

165 & 167 Race Street, CINCINNATI, O.

The leading house for FANCY DRY GOODS, FURNISHING GOODS and NOTIONS. Always have Big Drives. Special attention to Mail Orders.

Clark County National Bank

MAIN STREET, WINCHESTER, KY.

JOHN W. BEAN, President.

B. F. CURTIS, Cashier.

Capital, $200,000. Surplus, $100,000.
Undivided Profits, $35,000.

Organized 1865, being the oldest bank in the county. Collections made on all points, and your business solicited.

Clay City National Bank,

CLAY CITY, KY.

Capital, $50,000.

FLOYD D. J. F. COX, President, Cashier.

No Bank in Eastern Kentucky has better vaults, nor better facilities for keeping your account. Managed entirely by home people who know you and who are always ready to accommodate you.

Money to loan on reasonable rates. Call on us.

Traders Deposit Bank,

MT. STERLING, KY.

CAPITAL, $200,000. SURPLUS, $80,000.

J. M. BOSTAFF, President.

G. L. KIRKPATRICK, Vice President.

W. W. THOMPSON, Cashier.

We respectfully solicit the business of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky. A general banking business done. Give us a chance to send you a bank book, pay your checks, and loan you money when in need.

W. W. THOMPSON, Cash.

Winchester Bank,

WINCHESTER, KY.

N. H. WITHERSPON, President.

R. D. HUNTER, Cashier.

Paid up Capital, $200,000.00.
Surplus, $60,000.00.

This Bank solicits the accounts of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky, and offers its customers every facility, and the most liberal terms within the limits of legitimate banking.

VICTOR + BOGAERT,

Manufacturing Jeweler,

17 E. Short Street,

LEXINGTON, KY.

Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry. Reliable Goods. Fair Dealing and Bottom Prices. All Goods and Work Guaranteed.

tax of that nature, however; but it ought to be a tax on franchises and inheritances. The Hon. Uriel S. Hall, of Missouri, a practical farmer and a cultured versatile statesman, spoke as follows on this subject in the house of representatives:

"Coming down to the question of principle can you ever perfect a revenue tariff in any government without an income tax? My able colleague from Missouri (Mr. Tarsney) dwelt in some measure upon this matter. I notice in the Washington Post of this morning an extract from the New York Sun, in which that organ denounces the income tax for the reason that the revenue from the income tax law in England had varied during a period of twenty years; this writer cites the fact that during this period the rates of taxation varied from sixteen pence on the pound to two pence, the revenue derived by the government varying from 3,500,000 pounds to 17,500,000 pounds. I quote the article merely from memory. Now, I say that this flexibility of the income tax is one of the greatest arguments in its favor. I do not believe that any party on earth, that any man who is a patriot, wants to see the business interests of this country hazarded and the obligation of contracts impaired by changes in the tariff every two or four years. 'I asked an eminent member of the ways and means committee whether he could even in theory conceive of a tax which would give a proper revenue for 1895 and 1896, which would not produce a surplus of at least twenty-five millions in 1897 and 1898. He answered, as every student of that subject must answer: 'No.' Without an income tax the only method at our command for producing the proper flexibility of revenue to meet the flexible demands of the government, without disturbing the business interests of the country, is to change your tariff schedule every two years. I am not one of those who believe that the present business depression is due to threatened tariff legislation, but rather that with a view to the present tariff legislation fastened upon the people with increasing and ever-growing burdens until its final culmination in the McKinley act of 1890, which has brought around with marked severity the present financial crisis under which we are now suffering.

"I believe that tariff legislation or threatened tariff legislation must have some tendency to impair the obligation of contracts, to disconcert business, to bring about business distress. And I believe that no party that has at heart the real interest of the country can afford to say: 'We will change the tariff legislation of the government every two years, and thereby run the risk of impairing the obligation of contracts and disturbing business interests.' "By this kind of a tax, a tax upon incomes, the English government was enabled to pass through the Crimean war; and the man who wrote that article in the New York Sun did not say it was during that war, but the dates show it. And the fact that the rate varied from 16d. to the pound to 7d. to the pound, and 4d. to the pound and down to 2d. to the pound showed what? It showed that England was enabled, by increasing the income tax, to pass through the Crimean war with very little disturbance of the taxing system of the government from the internal revenue or from the tariff taxation; and they were able, when the crisis passed, to bring it down, and bring nothing but good will and gratitude from all classes of the people."

There is much in the argument that an income tax is more inquisitorial than other taxes. We all remember the Tilden case. A corporation tax, and inheritance tax is far less inquisitorial and such a tax should be levied in order to avoid periods of surplus and deficits in the treasury. But for good or for ill we are going to have the income tax. Hill assails it because it is in a bill that he thinks has too much free trade in it. There is the secret of his hostility. That is all both about the income tax being un-American. There is a modified income tax in New York now. Why did Hill not have that repealed when he was the boss of the state?

A little over two years ago Mr. Hill made a blunder. He held a "snap" convention. A few days later there was a mutter that came up from the country. Soon it became a roar, then a roar, then it increased to the volume of reverberating thunder, and finally it was tremendous enough to silence all the bombards of Sebastopol. Perhaps Mr. Hill is repeating himself. His speech was carefully prepared; it was deliberate; but its motive was so transparent that it did no execution except in the recoil. He began with an attack on Gresham—who is sound on the tariff question at any rate, and the best hated man on the part of monopolistic corporations in the

WHEN IN

LEXINGTON

VISIT

MARCH'S,

24 W. Main Street,

FOR

Furniture, CARPETS AND STOVES.

MONEY SAVED

ON

EVERY ARTICLE.

American Union. One would infer that Hill never appointed a Republican to office in his life; but I read in a New York paper the other day a list of distinguished and leading Republicans appointed to office by Hill, while he was governor. There are a set of men in New York known as "Hill Republicans." Low Sessions, who played such a miserable part against Roscoe Conkling in 1881, is one of them. No wonder Hill puts himself at the head of the Republicans and leads a charge against the confirmation of a justice of the supreme court because the gentleman nominated had declared in a public speech that the McKinley law was not only inexpedient, but unconstitutional.

The states' rights part of Senator Hill's speech was admirable as a political essay. But its conclusions were all wrong. To say that it is heresy for congress to levy a tax on the rich for the exclusive purpose of securing revenue to the government, while it is all right for that same congress to levy another tax on the great mass of consumers, is an interpretation of states' rights that defeats nearly all individual rights. If I wish to purchase a hat the Englishman stands ready to sell it to me for $3; but McKinley steps in and says "If you buy that hat you shall pay a fine at the custom house of $2," and thus it is that two hat manufacturers, constituents of Senator Hill, levy a tribute of $2 upon every man of the millions who buy their hats. This is nothing but flat robbery. Then why should not these two bloated monopolists pay a part of their swag into the public treasury in the way of an income tax? What applies to hats applies to thousands of other articles taxed by McKinley. This is it that has made socialism rampant in America. We impose a tax to "protect" labor. The manufacturer locks out that "protected" labor, and sends to Europe for other labor, found in the slums, where anarchy breeds political and social pestilence. This is what has made of Pennsylvania a political and social volcano, liable at any moment to erupt and play the very devil, not only with Pennsylvania, but with the whole union.

Nowhere else on the globe, not in Italy, not in Russia, is the distance between the rich and the poor so great as in the protected state of Pennsylvania. This is the fruit of protection, root and branch, the whole union will be Pennsylvaniaized, Coxe's army would be a reality—a terrible reality, an avenging and a destroying reality.—"Savoyard," in Courier-Journal.

The reputation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, as a blood medicine, is maintained by daily cures.

C. B. Ross, Jr., & Co.

LEXINGTON.

We have an elegant assortment of

NOVELTIES

— IN —

Dress Goods, Silks

— AND —

KID GLOVES.

When in Lexington don't fail to give us a call.

Masonville and Lonsdale Cotton, 7½¢ yd.

Best Calicos, 4¢ yd.

Lancaster Apron Gingham, 4¢ per yd.

We are Sole Agents for

Foster's Kid Gloves,

Featherbone Corsets

— AND —

Standard Patterns.

C. B. Ross, Jr., & Co.

Lexington.

THE HERALD

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
THURSDAY, : May 3, 1894.

TEN PAGES.

YOU'LL FIND IT HERE.

Georgetown college will dedicate its new buildings during commencement week in June.

Car loads of whisky are being shipped to South Carolina, since the state dispensary law has been declared unconstitutional.

At San Francisco Bank Robber William Frederick was found guilty of the murder of Cashier Herriek in five minutes by the jury.

The importation of American trotting horses in Austria-Hungary for breeding purposes has assumed considerable proportions.

Samuel F. Vaughan was hanged at Fayetteville, Ark., Friday. He had hired a firm hand to kill ex-County Clerk Gage, a rival litigant.

Six Louisville convicts in the Frankfort penitentiary had planned to escape. The plot was detected in time and frustrated by the prison officials.

The Republican party in Magoffin county, Ky., has split over the recent primary, and the chances for electing the Democratic ticket are favorable.

The congressional fight in the Ashland district promises to be one of the severest ever held in the state. All the contestants are putting forth all their energies.

A Mason county, Kentucky, farmer made a net profit of $2,400 on forty acres of land last year. He put in a diversified crop, and worked it in an intelligent manner.

Lemuel Bailey, a well known attorney of Muncie, Ind., was found dead in a saloon at that place. No arrests have been made, but the authorities are investigating.

Prof. F. M. Helveti, whose sudden illness was mentioned in this column last week, succumbed to the fell destroyer on the 24th inst. in St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington.

William A. France, a prominent farmer near Huntington, Ind., died recently from a peculiar trouble. A bone had grown around and incased the heart, causing heart failure.

The city marshal of Missouri Valley, Iowa, and a posse surrounded a house containing thieves, and in a battle that followed the marshal was killed, a thief fatally shot and one of the deputies wounded.

In Louisville a man was arrested and sent to jail for stealing a pocket-book. When the man's time expired it was discovered that he had stolen the ten commandments, which had adorned the jail walls in a neat frame.

At a meeting of the Democratic state central committee of North Dakota, at Fargo, resolutions were adopted rebuking the Democrats in the senate for their inactivity at this time, when the country demands prompt legislation.

The corner stone of the United Brethren church at Burket, Ind., laid 27 years ago, was picked by burglars. It was robbed of $200 in money, a jack-knife carried for many years by William Henry Harrison, and files of the county papers.

Lincoln county, Kentucky, got ahead of the insurance companies last year. She paid $7,495 in premiums, and got $17,547 in losses. Boyle paid out $25,389 and received $11,647, and Garraut put up $43,726 and only drew out $15,157.

An unknown robber entered the office of the county treasurer, at the court house, at Portland, Oregon, shot the cashier in charge, Charles B. Mullarkey, and then, jumping through a window, escaped with about $2,000 of the county's funds.

By the use of fishberries Chapline river at Cornishville, Ky., has been poisoned and thousands of fish destroyed. The stench arising from the dead fish is so great that the people of the village, which lies on both sides of the stream, can hardly stand it.

At Vancouver, Wash., Howard Nolan, arrested last week, admits that his name is John Howard Nolan, of Hazel Green House, Ky., and that in the year 1891 he killed Edward Pace and John Selzer, about six miles from Harlan Court House. After leaving Kentucky Nolan went to Seattle and enlisted in the army.

The little town of Canaanville, six miles east of Athens, Ohio, has an alleged daily appearance of a veritable ghost on its streets. It is that of a woman attired in conventional white, accompanied by a white dog. It comes out between one and two o'clock in the afternoon, and when approached by anyone fades away in a mist.

Henry Borgman was arrested last week for the murder of his sister. He is 35 and she 26. The coroner's investigation showed that Borgman had been sustaining illicit relations with his sister, she revolted and he sent her throat and then plunged the knife into her abdomen. He was taken to jail, and it is rumored that a mob would lynch him. The Borgmans lived near Osceola, Ind.

WOLFE COUNTY NEWS.

Campton Currency.

Born, on the 18th ult., to the wife of Lewis Collier, a boy.

Hon. G. B. Swango, of Frankfort, has been here several days attending court. Hazel Green's young attorney, James H. Swango, was in attendance at court last week.

Miss Mahala Byrd, who has been very sick for some time, is improving nicely at this writing.

Dr. J. H. Stamper has been appointed by the state board of health as medical referee for Wolfe county.

Quite a crowd of people went to the cliffs below town last Sunday to have a photograph taken. Judge Redwine, the attorneys and nearly all of the young folks of the town, and a good many of the older ones, too, composed the group. We have not seen it, but imagine that it will be a thing of beauty.

COURT NOTES.

Circuit court convened here Monday, the 23d ult., with his honor, Judge D. B. Redwine, on the bench. The town was full of people, and when the court bell summoned them to the court house, it was packed to its utmost capacity. The judge's instructions to the grand jury were a clear and forcible explanation of their duties and responsibilities. He dwelt at length on the offense of selling liquor, picturing in his usual captivating and persuasive way the evil effects growing out of the traffic. He also called particular attention to that offense which is the greatest menace to the peace of our country—carrying pistols. In the course of his talk the judge paid Wolfe county the compliment of being the best county in his district to enforce the law. Judge Redwine is making us an excellent judge. He presides with dignity, is always pleasant and courteous, yet firm and unyielding in his rulings and decisions.

The following is a list of the grand jury: D. C. Lykins, foreman; S. N. Hobbs, R. F. Cable, William Hollon, Washington Tyra, John H. Barker, J. J. Catron, J. H. Scott, W. B. Johnson, N. B. Wyatt, Powell Rose, J. M. Lockhart. The following named persons composed the petit jury: J. M. Tester, Fielden Bush, Oscar Allen, John Hatton, J. B. Davis, John Rose, J. M. Culbertson, Jas. Burton, Alex A. Rose, Jerry Childers, W. J. Baker, Jonathan Childers, Joseph Catron, Leander Dunn, Jonas Campbell, S. J. Ashley, J. T. Stamper, J. L. Alexander, W. E. White, J. M. Gibbs, Elijah Collins, J. T. Center, G. B. Stamper.

Below will be found some verdicts in penal cases at the present term of court:

Bruce Terrill, concealed weapons, ten days imprisonment and $25.00.

Same, breach of the peace, $10.

Hent Salley, breach of the peace, $7.50.

Willis Clark, concealed weapons, $25 and 10 days imprisonment.

Daniel Combs, concealed weapons, $25 and 10 days imprisonment.

Joseph Williams, concealed weapons, $25 and 10 days imprisonment.

John Gibbs, gaming at Hazel Green fair, $-0.

George Oliver, disturbing religious worship, $20.

Ben Harris, selling liquor, $20.

William Stamper, disturbing religious worship, $20.

Jack Congleton, breach of the peace, $10.

Arch Simpkins, trespass, $10.

At least half of the criminal cases were continued on account of the parties not being ready to try at the time.

We give below some of the most important equity and common law cases tried, and the judgments in same:

Laura Tutt vs. S. M. Tutt, divorce.

Judgment for plaintiff, $500 alimony, a divorce a mensa et thora, and a yearly allowance of $150 for her lifetime, and the custody of their infant son, Nicholas Tutt.

George Oliver vs. M. M. Shackelford.

Shackelford had obtained a judgment in 1891 against Oliver on land and under execution on same he took some property and sold it. Oliver set up in his present damage suit that he was a housekeeper and that the property levied on was not subject to execution. Judgment for defendant.

Emily Lacy vs. A. P. Lacy. Judgment for maintenance $1,000.

Our present grand jury made 84 indictments. They were untiring in their efforts to find out the violations of law that had been committed, and the number of indictments they returned attests how successful they have been. Let the grand juries be prompt to make indictments and the petit juries assess the fines to the full extent of the law, and we will have better times.

Rollin Kash and G. B. Stamper made application for license to practice law, and J. J. C. Back and W. W. McGuire were appointed by the court to examine them, and after having taken them through a written examination sufficiently rigid to test their knowledge of law and their ability to practice same, they were granted license to practice in all the courts of the commonwealth.

The visiting attorneys were: W. W. McGuire, West Liberty; I. W. Rose, Maytown; J. J. C. Back, Thomas Cope and John Patrick, Jackson; W. B. White and H. C. Lilly, Irvine.

RAMBLER.

Lee City Locals.

H. H. Swango was here last week shaking hands with the dear people.

Clay Rose has moved his stock of goods to his new store on Main street.

Clay Rose has just received a new organ and is well pleased with it.

Mrs. Robert G. Rose has been confined to her room for about two weeks with inflammatory sore eyes and has suffered intense agony, but we are glad to note that so is now improving.

Robert M. Trimble, of the firm of Trimble Bros., Mt. Sterling, was here several days ago and was a guest of the Allen House. We were glad to see Robert and are proud of his prosperity. He is another one of the young men that was born and raised away up here in the mountain wilds of Eastern Kentucky that now ranks among the first class business men of the country.

An election will be held in Lee City on the 7th day of May for the election of a full board of town officers, viz: Police judge, town marshal and five trustees. The candidates already spoken of are as follows: For police judge—C. B. Allen and Henry Patrick; town marshal—W. E. McPherson and G. B. Maloney; trustees—D. N. Wells, R. G. Rose, A. M. Nickell, Clay Rose and, perhaps, C. C. Chaney.

Rev. C. F. Heavenin, of Augusta, Ky., preached an able sermon at the Christian church, at this place, last Sunday, the first Methodist sermon ever preached in Lee City, the text being taken from Romans, i, 16: "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." The speaker first gave a concise and general history of the Apostle Paul during his tragic and eventful career while persecuting Christians in the Jewish and the other cities, and showed to what depth he was steeped in sin and iniquity up to the time of his conversion while on his way to Damascus. He then took up Paul's history as a Christian converted and regenerated, and a more beautiful illustration of the wonderful power and working of the Holy Spirit on the heart, mind and soul of men has seldom been heard from a pulpit orator. The large congregation was composed of the several denominations of this section, only one Methodist being present except the speaker, yet all denominations unite in speaking in highest terms of the sermon. It was an embodiment of old time Methodist religion. AND.

The attention of our readers and especially the farmers, is respectfully called to the handsome advertisement of Ed Mitchell's hardware house in this issue. This house is one of the oldest in Eastern Kentucky, and under Mr. Mitchell's management has taken front rank. He has just extended the building twenty-five feet, which not only gives more room but by the addition he has more light.

The store has been recently repainted, all the small hardware is in hand-somely finished boxes, and altogether the store presents an exceptionally nice appearance. This establishment carries an exceptionally nice line of agricultural implements, notable among which are the Whiteley Binder and Mower, the Mitchell Wagon, etc., etc.

Sharp, Trimble & Deaton, dealers in clothing and gent's furnishing goods, Mt. Sterling, invite a call from the people of this section, and when in that city you should go to see them. It is the only clothing house in Mt. Sterling that apparently desires your trade, and they will treat you nicely. You will find there a full line of the latest fashions in men's wear, shoes, etc.

We buy goods by car load lots and that is why we can undersell any one in Eastern Kentucky. Sutton & Smith, Mt. Sterling.

Elder J. T. Pieratt will preach at Lee City next Sunday morning and afternoon.

About thirty-five years ago, Mrs. Milton Stevenson, of Georgetown, Ky., while brushing some broken glass from a table, saw a piece of glass in the palm of her hand. Since that time her hand and arm at times have given her considerable pain. A day or two ago she discovered a pimple on her arm near the elbow, and, on picking it with a needle, extricated the piece of glass, which all these years had been gradually working up into the arm from the hand.

When in Lexington call on L. & G. STRAUS, Leading Clothiers, who carry a larger line of CLOTHING and sell for less money than any house in the bluegrass capital. A Watch free with every purchase of $5, or over.

WALTER A. WOOD, 1894.

Always at the front in design, style and quality of our

MOWERS, HAY RAKES, REAPERS and BINDERS.

with latest improvements, we call attention of farmers to their great strength, durability and light draft.

Our sales show that they are unexcelled. Send for Catalogue.

TUBULAR STEEL MOWER.

HAY RAKE.

ENCLOSED GEAR REAPER.

HARVESTER AND BINDER.

See W. W. REED, Mt. Sterling, Ky., for prices.

A CITY STORE AT YOUR DOOR.

For the benefit of the ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity, I have opened a GENERAL FURNISHING GOODS STORE at my residence in Hazel Green, and will carry a complete line of the following articles, which will be sold at the LOWEST PRICES, viz:

Ladies' Hats, Silks and Velvets, Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Ladies' Gloves, Ladies' Toilets, Cutlery Irons, Bronzing Paints, Ladies' Corsets, Ladies' Slippers, Complete line of Hosiery, Elastic, etc., etc.

Buy Your Hats of Me, and Get Them Trimmed Free of Charge.

My stock will embrace every article of Ladies' wear, in the latest style just from the city, as well as many other notions too numerous to mention. I will also do DRESS-MAKING, and will cut and make dresses to suit the latest fashion. Best system of cutting by the Buddington Cutting Machine, which was awarded first premium at the World's Fair, 1893. Mrs. LAURA RAWLINS, of Covington, Ky., well and favorably known to the ladies of this vicinity, will be my assistant. Your trade is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed. Very respectfully,

Mrs. FRED DAY.

HOFFMAN'S Insurance Agency. FIRE. LIFE. ACCIDENT.

The Safest, Best and MOST RELIABLE Agency in Eastern Kentucky. Rates Reasonable.

ASSETS OVER $260,000.00. LOSSES PAID 275,000.00.

Address A. HOFFMAN, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

THE HERALD

SPENCER COOPER, : : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
THURSDAY, May 3, 1894.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH M. KENDALL, of Floyd county, Kentucky, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce MARCUS C. LINDSEY, of Clark county, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce SAM HENRY WILSON as a candidate for sheriff of Wolfe county, subject only to the will of the people at the polls in November, 1894.

For Justice of the Peace.

We are authorized to announce R. M. CECIL, of Stillwater, as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for the Holly and Stillwater district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26.

We are authorized to announce J. H. VEST, of Gallatin, as a candidate for reelection to the office of Justice of the Peace for the Hazel Green and Lee City district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election May 26.

We are authorized to announce JAMES H. SEBASTIAN, of Bayview, as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for the Hazel Green and Lee City district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26, 1894.

May Forecast.

The month opens at the end of April's closing storm period, with storm disturbances disappearing in extreme eastern parts of the country, and cooler weather prevailing in central and western sections. An equinox of Mercury is central on the 3d, and will cause cloudiness and tendency to continued drizzle. In the extreme north seed need not prove a surprise. By the 4th decided change to warmer will develop in the west, and during the 5th to the 7th, reactionary storms will pass over the country, being central about the time of new moon on the 5th. A sharp change to cooler will follow the disturbances at this time, with strong probabilities of frost along the northern side of the country from about 7th to 10th.

From 10th to 14th is the next regular period of change and storm. A very warm wave is apt to appear by the 11th, in western regions, and during the three days next following storms of much energy and wide scope will traverse the country from west to east. Another very cool wave for the season will come in behind the storms, causing several days of much cooler weather in the country generally. Heavy rains may be reasonably expected during the last named disturbances—namely, about the 11th, 12th and 13th, during which time a series of daily storms, recurring near the same time of day, or night, for several days need not be unexpected. Watch barometers, temperature and direction of wind; if barometer fails to rise after one storm passes, with wind still in east and south, expect another storm from the west, and so on until conditions change.

The cool weather following the storms of the last week will give place to warmer, and secondary storms will appear in many places about the 17th and 18th, immediately after which the barometer will rise rapidly to a very high reading, attended by a sharp change to cooler.

From 21st to 25th falls the next storm period, during which time it will grow very warm, and many storms of rain, thunder and wind will appear. In all these disturbances, the intelligent use of the barometer, and correct observation of wind currents, will foreshadow with much certainty the coming and the intensity of storms. About the 27th and 28th will be central the last disturbances for May, bringing fair and cooler days and nights for the closing month.

In the nature of things, May must bring more or less violence, in a meteorological way, but there is a marked absence of disturbing causes, so far as other planets are concerned. There are reasons to believe that storms will not be unusually frequent and heavy; but it will be the part of prudence to watch them all, and be prepared to take refuge from all that may carry in their cloudy folds the desolators of towns and hearts and homes.—Word and Works.

P. L. Reese, at Mt. Sterling, is headquarters in Kentucky for sewing machines and supplies. Write him for bottom prices

Monster Snake.

A special from Harrodsburg, Ky., says: "Mr. John Yeast, a farmer residing near Cornishville, this county, brought to this city a huge snake, the like of which was never seen in this locality. The reptile was eight feet 10 inches in length and measured 12 inches in circumference. Mr. Yeast was harvesting in a field, and had just turned his team around, when the monster of a snake appeared. He rushed from a fence corner, with head erect and glided rapidly in front of the team. The animals took fright and ran off, leaving Yeast to battle with the reptile. Seizing a half rail he succeeded in killing the monster, and discovered that it had been blinded, apparently a long time ago. This snake has been the dread of women and children for the last five years. During that time his snakeship has been frequently seen by different persons who gave wonderful descriptions of the monster. Last summer a company was formed to kill it. Several unsuccessful attempts were made before he was seen. When pursued he managed to escape to Chapline river cliffs near by."

Mrs. Lou Day requests us to say to the ladies of Hazel Green and the surrounding country that she has just opened a full and complete line of millinery, dry-goods, notions, ladies' dress goods, which she will sell at the lowest prices for cash or produce—butter, lard, chickens, eggs, or anything she can use for the table. She has a nice line of trimmed and untrimmed hats, for spring and summer, which will be added to from time to time, so that the very latest styles can be found here. She also has a fine line of toilet articles.

Died at Ninety-Eight.

Ex Governor N. S. Berry, the oldest ex-governor in the United States, died April 27 in Bristol, N. H., of pneumonia, aged ninety-eight years. He was born in Bath, Me., September 1, 1796. The first forty-five years of his life were spent in mercantile pursuits. In connection with his business, however, he engaged in politics, and in 1828, 1833, 1834 and 1837 he represented Bristol, N. H., his adopted home, in the legislature. In 1836 he was state senator from the Eleventh district. He was a judge of the court of common pleas from 1841 till 1850, and at various other times held political and appointive offices. In 1845 he was nominated for governor and received votes enough to prevent an election by the people. He was elected governor by the Republicans in 1861 and was re-elected in March, 1862, serving until 1863. He was a Christian and was a member of the Methodist church.

If the care of the hair were made a part of a lady's education, we should not see so many gray heads, and the use of Hall's Hair Renewer would be unnecessary.

Good Roads to Lead Everywhere.

Down in the county of Hardin the courts and the people are making a great prize to have turnpike roads built. A greater blessing than good roads never came to the people of any country. Here in Grant county we can boast of 200 miles of macadam turnpike roads, the best to be found in the state, and we would not exchange our heritage of good roads for $5 an acre on all our land. Grant county's turnpike roads has been the work of only twelve years.—Williamstown Courier.

The stockholders of the Hazel Green fair association will meet at the floral hall, on the fair grounds, on Saturday, May 5, 1894, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers and board of directors for the ensuing year.

H. F. PIERATT, President.

You can relieve that headache you have by buying a box of Megrimine at The Herald office. It will only cost 50 cents and is sold on a positive guarantee.

FOR SALE.—About 500,000 feet of pine and popular timber near the mouth of Swift's creek and about one mile from Red river. For terms see 10 S. F. Howe, Campton, Ky.

WAS PREPARED TO DIE.

But When the Time Came His Vision Failed to Come True.

Some time since, says the New York Telegram, a certain farmer in the middle of this state, an eccentric old fellow the neighbors said, had a vision. Somebody appeared to him, a spirit, a hobgoblin or what not, and informed him that he had only a few months to live. The date fixed was in November.

The farmer took the matter very seriously, but he had no fears. He told his friends that he was about to depart, and began to get ready. He paid all his debts, which is more than even death can induce every one to do, and offered his farm utensils and his stock for sale. He wanted to clean things up handsomely, as every honest man should do, and leave no entanglements behind him. Among other things to be disposed of were two cows, but as he wanted to live comfortably while he did live he concluded to hold on to those cows until the last moment.

Oddly enough, now that the time of his exit is close at hand, he has had another vision. A new set of ghosts or hobgoblins have appeared to him and informed him that arrangements have been made to allow him to stay in this wicked world a little longer. He was rather relieved at the postponement of his funeral, but still felt a degree of embarrassment for pretty nearly everything he had, wagons, horses and harnesses, axes, hoes, some cords of wood behind the house, had all been got rid of, and the farm looked as though it had just been abandoned.

The old fellow is a bit rigid, however. "This vision business," he said the other day, "has cost me dear," and he has been heard to use more rather strong expressions about hobgoblins in general and this particular hobgoblin that seems to have been playing a practical joke on him.

He is specially glad that he didn't sell those cows. They are about all he has left, but they will serve as a nucleus for the things he will have to buy in order to run the farm. When a stranger comes along nowadays and says he would like to take a peep at those cows with a view to purchase them, the farmer comes as close to profanity as a country church deacon ever gets. He thinks the swear words, but bites his tongue and remarks that he hasn't any cows for sale, but is thinking of buying a herd and going into the dairy business.

The moral of this is that hobgoblins are very useful creatures in their way; that when they tell you to pay your debts you had better follow their advice, but if they tell you you are going to die you had better take camomile tea and send for the doctor. At any rate, don't part with your cows.

SUPERIOR

to all other medicines for purifying the blood and restoring the health and strength.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

is the standard specific for Scrofula, Catarrh Rheumatism, and Debility.

Cures Others will cure you.

Don't Fall In

to the hands of any but reliable people when you are looking for CLOTHING. We are the largest house in Central Kentucky and make a specialty of $7.00 and $10 Suits. With every suit for Men we give a guaranteed, lever movement, dust proof, WATCH AND CHAIN FREE. "White Hall." GRAVES, COX & CO. LEXINGTON, KY.

I want all your Good Butter, and will pay 12 1-2c. a pound for it.

Eggs 8 1-3 cents.

And when you want to get the BEST GOODS for the LEAST MONEY, you will find that I can accommodate you in every particular. I have a large stock to select from, and whether you buy or not I will be pleased to see you every time you come to town.

Wishing your continued good will and patronage, I remain,

Yours to please,
JOHN M. ROSE.

Hazel Green, Ky., Jan. 26, 1894.

Times are hard and I haven't pressed you, but I'd like to have a little money now.

Who Is Your Friend?

When this question goes around the Business Circle the answer comes back, "The one who can give the best values for the least money. Having been in the market at a season when the jobbers were cleaning up, I have been able to purchase some rare bargains, which shall be the gain of my customers. Give me your care while I quote you prices."

Ladies Cloaks.....	75 and up.	Men's Heavy Overcoats.....	$2.00 and up.
Ladies' Fine Shoes.....	50 "	Ladies' Fine Shoes.....	1.00 "
Men's Heavy Boots.....	2.00 "	Men's Fine Shoes.....	1.00 "

NO TIME, but MORE GOODS FOR THE MONEY than can be had elsewhere.

Very respectfully, &c.,
G. W. ROBINSON,
CAMPTON, KY.

J. TAYLOR DAY,
Dealer in General Merchandise on a Cash Basis.
Largest Stock.—Lowest Price.

LOUIS STIX & CO., WHEN YOU WANT A WATCH.
Or anything in the Jewelry line, let me know it. I will furnish you goods worth the money, and YOU will have GUARANTEE at home where you can use it.

Respectfully,
T. F. CARR,
THE JEWELER,
EZZEL, Morgan County, Ky.

J. H. PIERATT,
Livery, Feed and Sale Stable
HAZEL GREEN, KY.

"Double and Single Rigs and Saddle Horses for hire. Parties conveyed to any point on reasonable terms."

"I will also attend to all calls for auctioneering, and solicit business of this kind, Respectfully,
JOHN H. PIERATT.

JOHN M. ROSE
HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Is the only firm in the town who dies the justly celebrated

Boots: and of Sho
from the wholesale house of
C. P. Tracy & Co
PORTSMOUTH, OHIO.
When you want the BEST give him a call.

J. T. DAY,
HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Is the only merchant in Wolfe county who sells the celebrated

CHILLED SOUTH BEND PLOW,
and he respectfully invites farmers to call and examine it before purchasing.

BEN. WILLIAMSON & CO.,
CATLETTSBURG, KY.
Sole agents for Northeastern Kentucky.

C. D. MOORE WITH
BEN WILLIAMSON & CO.,
Hardware, Outlery, & CATLETTSBURG, KY.
Sole agency for South Bend Plows.

DR. J. E. LOCKHART,
DENTIST.

J. T. MILLER,
DEALER IN
Hardware, Iron and Steel,
LEXINGTON, KY.

FOR FINE JOB PRINTING, CALL AT THIS OFFICE.

MORGAN COUNTY NEWS.

Maytown Missions.
E. B. May has gone to Pikeville on professional business.
Our townsman, I. W. Rose, has been appointed county attorney for Morgan county, vice Samuel Salyers resigned.
Rev. Doane, of Campton, was in town last week and made a proposition to our people in regard to building an academy and commencing a graded school at once. The citizens of town and vicinity have accepted his proposition, and a contract will be entered into this week and the good work commenced at once. A good move in the right direction.

WINELESS.

Grassy Creek Cuttings.
Ada Ceall, daughter of Oscar Ceall, is very low with fever.
Jeff Phillips, of Pleasant Ridge, attended church at Grassy Sunday.
Died, on the 27th ult., of consumption, George DeHaven, son of Matt DeHaven. Henry Greenwade and several others on West Liberty attended church at Grassy Sunday.
Frank DeBak, of Fleming county, in this neighborhood several days back on business.
J. T. Pieratt, of your town, filled a pint at Old Grassy church.
Rev. Dunigan was present.
Lou Emma, the little daughter of G. B. Robison, is on the sick list at her grandparents, Samuel Byrd, near this place. CINDERELLA.

Sellers Sunshine.

Farmers are busy planting corn. Look out for cut worms, as there seem to be thousands of them.
Elder J. A. Howard left home for Rowan county, to hold some protracted meetings. Union, peace and love will prevail if all of God's children will pray for it. This neighborhood all seems about quieted down and in peace once more.
The Union Sunday school that was organized at Amys school house, on Red River, a few weeks ago, is in fine working order. J. B. Amys is superintendent, James Stricklen assistant superintendent, J. T. Amys clerk, Mrs. Alice Amys teacher of class No. 2. The attendance is large. Praise the Lord for the good work go on.
Your correspondent had the pleasure of conversing with Sam H. Taulbee. He reports that J. A. Howard had held a series of meetings at Pleasant Run, and the fruits, he had done much good. A man and wife were divided by sin, and there was now union. It is as though Satan is being driven out, and I hope he will stay out. MATT.

Must Have Money!

All persons who are indebted to me, for medical attention or other purpose, are requested to come forward and at once, as I must have money or equivalent within 30 days. Please give this your earliest attention and save further expense. Respectfully,

JOHN A. TAULBEE, M. D.

May 1, 1894.

The Democratic committee of Wolfe county will meet at the court house, in the town of Campton, on Monday, May 7, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested.

H. F. PIERATT, Chairman.

His Grace.

Dodgeworth (after a violent waltz)—How do you like my dancing?
Bella Donough—It reminds me of the patron saint of the art.
Dodgeworth—Who's that—Terpsichore?
Bella Donough—No! St. Vitus—Judge.
When Every Man's Word is Good—Chapple (his first attendance at a U. to elderly friend)—What shall I do to my partner about?
Elderly Friend—Her beauty.
Chapple—But if she doesn't happen to be beautiful?
Elderly Friend—No matter; she'll say your word for it.—Jury.

ABOUT CONSUMPTION.

It is Declared to Be a Contagious Disease.

An Ancient Theory Revived Through Scientific Investigation—No Provisions Against Contagion Can Be Made.

The Philadelphia County Medical society has petitioned the board of health of that city to put consumption of the lungs on the list of contagious diseases, says the Baltimore Sun. The request has awakened interest in the old question of the contagiousness of consumption, and incidentally on the general subject of infection and contagion. Some of the diseases which flesh is heir to are contagious in every respect of the word. A contact so slight that it does not even reach skin contact, but merely with the air which smallpox patients breathe, is sufficient to cause smallpox in man. So, too, a casual contact—that is to say, the handling by the well of material touched by the sick—has been proved to be the cause of many diseases, of which erysipelas and scarlet fever may be cited as examples. The products of certain other diseases—typhoid fever, for example—require to be taken into the economy to become maleficent. Still others, such as glanders, must be introduced into the blood current itself before they are dangerous. These facts have been proved by long observation and are not to be disputed. A horseman treats a case of glanders with perfect security, provided his skin is whole or is protected. A nurse or a doctor who pursues the room of a typhoid patient and suffers no hurt. The older doctors, therefore, set these diseases to one side as infectious, but not contagious, for it was equally evident that they were carried from patient to patient, not through the air, but through other, and to them unknown, means.

Still others, such as glanders, must be introduced into the blood current itself before they are dangerous. These facts have been proved by long observation and are not to be disputed. A horseman treats a case of glanders with perfect security, provided his skin is whole or is protected. A nurse or a doctor who pursues the room of a typhoid patient and suffers no hurt. The older doctors, therefore, set these diseases to one side as infectious, but not contagious, for it was equally evident that they were carried from patient to patient, not through the air, but through other, and to them unknown, means.

Even if it is proved that the disease always originates from a germ, and that this germ came from some previous case of the disease, the fact that so many cases of the disease are all at once exposed shows that there must be other factors than the germ alone which cause the disease, or at least aid in its propagation. So far, however, our factors are almost unknown.

That consumption was contagious centuries ago were in the habit of destroying the bodies and belongings of consumptives, and in some cases even the houses in which they lived, for fear of the spreading of the plague. That it is not very actively contagious is proved sufficiently by the fact that the dwellers in cities are alive at all, for statistics prove that from one-tenth to one-fifth of all the deaths in large cities are due directly or indirectly to the disease, and that consequently a number of sufferers from the disease must be present in every large gathering of people. Except in the later stages the patient is not confined to his bed. He mingles in all the social and industrial avocations of life. Not infrequently he is "the life of the party" or the "hardest worker of the office." In the present state of society, at least, such men cannot be condemned to a leper camp nor sent against their wills to a sanitarium, however excellent.

The general fact that consumption is a disease which, under certain circumstances, may become contagious or infectious should be admitted. A sufficient number of cases are known where the carrying of the disease from the ill to the well is clearly proved to demonstrate the general truth that consumption is sometimes contagious. This should lead to the most scrupulous care on the part not only of the physician but of the intelligent patient to prevent the spread of the disease. But any attempt to prevent such infection by quarantine regulation must almost necessarily prove abortive.

Too Much Talk.

First Tramp—If I had my way I'd have 333 national holidays in the year.
Second Tramp—You would, eh?
First Tramp—No matter; she'll say your word for it.—Jury.

SHE KNOWS A LOT.

That is the Secret of the Really Popular Girl.

The really popular girl always knows a lot, says the Philadelphia Enquirer. She knows enough not to gossip about people who have done her favors and who are in a way of doing her favors. She knows enough to dress appropriately at all times and never to be overdressed. She knows enough not to wear diamonds, discuss religion or politics, boast about her ancient lineage or tell long-winded tales. She knows enough to keep silence and she knows enough to talk well.

She knows how to dance, swim, row, sail a boat, play the piano and banjo, sing negro melodies and college songs. She knows enough not to "give away" all the funny confidences that the boys give her when in the blues or feeling particularly good, and she knows how to cook when they are stranded on an island, becalmed and without oars or a stick with which to pole home. She knows just how to catch a fish and then to cook it, and she knows enough not to grumble and whine and complain until they are safely home.

Meddlergrass Instructs a Collegian.
"Hello, Hayseed!" called out a rude young freshman to Farmer Meddlergrass.

"Young man," replied the farmer, "you stand there, college on the hill there, don't you?"

"Yes."
"Then let me tell you something that is not taught there. It is unparadoxically incorrect to speak of hayseed. That is something which does not exist. Hay is dried grass, and the proper term is grass seed. Just remember that."—Jury.

A Cool Customer.

"Do you know Dauenbury?"
"Yes."
"Well, he is a cool customer."
"He lives in the fur and seal apartments, and during the late cold spell he used the furniture of his landlord for fuel."—Texas Siftings.

The Correct Answer.

"James, how much is four, plus eight, plus one?" asked the teacher.
"Don't know," said James.
"Well, suppose I gave four apples to Harry, eight apples to Charlie and one to you. What would it be?"

WHY SUFFER

From that old complaint, when you can be permanently cured by an

ELECTROPOISE?

Others have been cured, why not you?

Disease Cured Without Medicine?

Not an electric belt or battery, but a simple home treatment, which causes the entire body of the patient to absorb

OXYGEN

Ask your neighbor about it; if he can not tell you write to us for one of our books—sent free.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., March 19, 1894.
Messrs. Dullis & Webb, Louisville, Ky.
Gentlemen—Through the kindness of Mr. Spencer Cooper, the brother of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, I was afforded an opportunity to try the efficacy of your "Electropoise," and I must say that it acted like magic—almost a miracle to me. I was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism on the 15th inst., and in 24 hours my legs were swollen and my limbs ached with pain almost unbearable. I had no use of elbow, hips, knees or feet, and in this helpless condition I continued to suffer until the 9th, when Mr. Cooper came and offered to use the Electropoise. I had no faith whatever, but like a drowning man catching at a straw, consented to its use. In four hours the pain left my leg by which the "poise" was attached, and I continued to grow better until the following Monday, when I was able to sit up all day, and had not a pain about me. Today (19th) I resume my business, and feel as well as I ever did. I should add that just two years ago I was confined to my bed for four months by a similar attack the "poise" might have cured in four days. I BELIEVE now, and hope all who are afflicted as I was will try the same remedy.

Gratefully yours, F. N. DAY.
We are acquainted with the facts in this case, and can vouch for the truth of the above.

J. TAYLOR DAY.
J. H. PIERATT.

Nothing has ever received so many testimonials from trustworthy persons, many of whom are known to us.—Western Recorder, Louisville, Ky.

The Electropoise is a mystery to me—almost a miracle.—(Elder) John I. Rodgers. In one night the Electropoise relieved me of congestion of the brain, of the Migraine, Rev. Geo. H. Means, Covington, Ky.

A friend of mine was entirely cured of the optic habit with the Electropoise.—Rev. W. W. Bines, Hustonville, Ky.

The Electropoise is a wonderful instrument, and it is more wonderful as to how it does its work.—T. E. C. Briley (Flows), Louisville, Ky.

Address DUBOIS & WEBB, 609 Fourth Street, LOUISVILLE, KY.

Spot Cash!

In justice to ourselves, we have adopted the Cash System! And every living creature that buys goods from this date will be required to pay

SPOT CASH!

We do this because we are driven to it. Those who owe will not pay. When you read this ask yourself the question, "Do I owe Pieratt & Co. anything?"

And if so, don't wait to be dunned, but come and pay, or in 10 days you will hear it thunder!

Thanking you for past favors, and hoping to merit a good share of your trade, we are, Respectfully,

H. F. PIERATT & CO.

ACADEMY OF THE VISITATION, FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Mt. Adirondack, White Sulphur, Ky. This institution, under the direction of the Sisters of the Visitation, B. V. M., is situated in a healthy and beautiful locality of the well-known Blue Grass Region. Here the pupils enjoy the comforts of home, far removed from the distractions of a city; and can, consequently, with greater facility avail themselves of the advantages afforded of a thorough education.

Texas reasonable. Music, Croyon and Painting extra. House is heated by steam apparatus. For further particulars address

Sisters of the Visitation, B. V. M.

W. E. BARRINGER, WITH

Carter Dry Goods Co.

(Successors to Carter Bros. & Co.)

Importers and Jobbers of

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS, LOUISVILLE, KY.

Patronage of the mountain merchants is most respectfully solicited.

W. W. FYVIE, REPRESENTING

SANFORD, VARNER & CO.,

wholesale dealers in

CLOTHING,

121 and 123 Second Street, PORTSMOUTH, O.

The trade of Eastern Kentucky is most respectfully solicited.

I. DINGFELDER, WITH

J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co.

Importers and Jobbers of

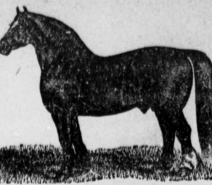

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS,

Nos. 537, 539 and 541—West Main Street, LOUISVILLE, KY.

J. H. PHILLIPS, WITH

W. M. KERR & CO., FOREIGN IN Hardware & Agricultural Implements, IRVINGTON, O.

THE GRAND TWO.

EAGLE DRENNON.

This premium saddle stallion will make the season of 1894 at the stable of W. T. Swango, in Hazel Green, Ky., at $6 to INSURE A LIVING COLT, money due when colt is foaled or mare is parted with, with lien on colt until paid.

EAGLE DRENNON is eight years old this spring, nearly 16 hands high, beautiful mare and tail, plenty of style and stamina. Sired by the famous Blue Jeans 3, 1st dam by the great pacer John Naylor, sire of the dam of Maggie F. 2:22; 2d dam by Adams Express, a noted saddle horse; 3d dam by Siddum; 4th dam by Copperbottom. Eagle Drennon is a half brother to Roscoe sold for $1,800, and eight more that sold for $1,000 or more. Blue Jeans horses have for several years sold higher than any saddle horses in Kentucky. Eagle Drennon can show what he is for himself. His colts saddle from any class of mares. Any mare that can out rack or trot him, bred free. He took two blue ribbons at the Hazel Green fair last year.

Blue Grass Beauty.

This fine young stallion will also make the season of 1894 at the same place at $6 to INSURE money due when colt is foaled or mare is parted with, with lien on colt until season money is paid.

Here is the equid of any colt in Kentucky, 15½ hands high, 4 years old the 7th of May; bright bay, with good mane and the grandest tail you ever saw. Goes at all the paces. Sired by Eagle Drennon, he by Blue Jeans; first dam Bird, by Lexington, one of the best mares in Montgomery county. Bird is the dam of two blue ribbon colts, and has racked a mile in three minutes. Second dam the celebrated Hiram Wilkerson saddle mare. Beauty is a perfect model in every respect.

COME AND SEE THEM.

A premium of $8 will be given for the best colt of either horse shown at the Hazel Green fair, 1894.

March 15, 1894. RAY MOSS.

The Young Spanish Jack.

ROSCO

This premium Jack will make the season of 1894 at my stable in Hazel Green, Ky., at $6 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT, money due when colt is foaled or mare is parted with, for which a lien will be retained on colt until season money is paid.

Roscoe will be 7 years old in June. He is black, perfect in form, and has to be seen to be appreciated. He was sired by the famous imported Jack, that paid $1,100 for; his dam, Black Bet, was sired by Old Alford; his famous Jack, that he refused $1,500 for; he by old four-year-old Wilkes Jr.

Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should they occur. Mares from a distance will be kept on reasonable terms.

April 5, 1894.

T. SWANCO.

ENEMIES THREE

There are with which the weak person generally has to contend.

WORK regularly consumes his strength, but often pays for what it takes.

WORRY lights the candle at the other end, and never pays at all.

DISEASE ties his hands and deprives him of power of resistance.

Who can number the thousands

OVERCOME BY

this mighty trio? For years we have fought these consumers of life with life's own weapon, the air we breathe, made stronger for the combat by the aid and skill of modern science.

COMPOUND-OXYGEN

restores strength, quiets the nerves and expels diseases.

Proof that will convince all who reason is offered free to all who suffer. Send us your address.

DEIS. STARKEY & PALEN, 1529 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa. 120 Sutter St., San Francisco, Cal.

FOR PRINTING, THE HERALD OFFICE, HAZEL GREEN, KY.

THE HERALD

Mrs. Lou Day made a flying visit to Hazel last Sunday.

Willie Jones came up from Hedges last Sunday to visit his friends here.

Mr. J. G. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Register G. B. Swango, of Frankfort, is visiting relations and friends at this place.

Mrs. Lou Alice Havens, of Grassy, has our thanks for a nice mess of fine spring onions.

John H. Pieratt will please accept the thanks of the editor for a mess of the greatest delicacy of the season.

Mrs. Heiskel Sally, near Hazel Green, is quite sick. Dr. Taulbee was called to see her Wednesday.

See the ad of Trimble Bros., Mt. Sterling, who are too well known in this section to need an introduction from us.

Miss Ida Cecil, near town, and Miss Rosa Trimble, of Hazel Green, both of whom have been quite sick, are now reported to be much better.

Hon. J. E. Quicksall, of this place, who has been very low with erysipelas since the first of April, is now able to sit up a little, but suffers severely at times yet.

If you are a candidate for magistrate or constable, you are required to pay $3 to me, on or before the 10th of May 1894. So do not neglect this if you are willing to serve the dear people.

H. F. PIERATT, Ch'm. Dem. Com.

That reliable clothing establishment, the One Price Clothing House, Lexington, Ky., is advertised in our paper this week, and it will pay buyers of clothing when in Lexington to call and see them. Visitors will find there a hearty welcome and the greatest variety of clothing.

John Thomas, aged about 75 years, died at his home on Lacy creek on Saturday evening last. He was a gunsmith by trade, and until a year or so ago managed to eke out a living by repairing firearms, but for some time before death was a subject of charity. He was a harmless, inoffensive old man, and well liked by all.

Hon. C. R. Brooks, late of Mt. Sterling, but now a resident of Oklahoma, has been promoted from assistant district attorney to the position of district attorney, which latter office pays $6,000 a year. This is a bit of news that will be appreciated by everybody in the mountains of Kentucky, where Cabe Brooks has a host of warm, true friends.

The town of Hazel Green has been organized under the charter for the sixth year. The old board appointed trustees to fill the vacancies. Rollin Kash was made police judge, John Wilson marshal, Henry Pieratt street commissioner and W. T. Swango pound master. John Evans resigned as clerk, and W. H. Nickell was appointed in his stead. A town ordinance requiring all stock to be kept off the street will go into effect.

R. D. Motley, of Grassy, sent Oscar, his eleven-year-old son, to Louisville, with Dr. Kash, for the purpose of having his ankle joint straightened. The doctors said that if an operation was performed, Oscar would have to remain at the hospital at least two months. Mr. Motley then went to Louisville, but Dr. Kash had already started home with the boy. Mr. Motley returned home Tuesday, and says it has cost him about $40 without any benefit to his son.

The situation in the congressional race is such in this county that nearly every one with whom we have talked desires the matter settled by a secret primary election, and if the county committee will consult the interests of their constituents they will do well on next Monday order a primary. It is apparently the best for everybody and has the redeeming feature of preventing fraud and corruption in choosing a congressman, and all who desire an honest expression in the matter must coincide with this view.

Graves, Cox & Co., Lexington, Ky., have an ad in this issue. They say "Don't Drop In," but the reading of the ad. will convince you that it refers to something of benefit to you. They will be glad to see you at any time, and if you buy a suit of clothes from them they will fit you with an elegant time piece free. Ed Wickliffe, who is now connected with the house, has been in the clothing business ever since the introduction of fig leaves as a covering for the body, and he will aid you in making a selection suited to your complexion.

The Stempel Fire Extinguisher is the greatest fire fighter yet introduced in America and at the same time one of the simplest and cheapest. The underwriters of Cincinnati all recommend it and the chiefs of every city fire department where it has been used unite in saying that it is the best thing with which to subdue fire that they have ever seen. One fireman told us that it was far more effective in case of fire than 200 buckets of water would be under ordinary circumstances. The editor of this paper is the agent for Morgan and Wolfe counties, and those who desire protection from fire should call at once and secure a Stempel Extinguisher. That the people may see and know just what it will do, we will give an exhibition with it on Saturday evening at 4 o'clock.

The ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity, who may desire a fine dress pattern, or trimmings, or notions, or dry goods, will do well to write to the firm of John Samuels, Mt. Sterling, Ky., which is now under the management of that prince of good fellows, Mr. John King, than whom there is not in Mt. Sterling a finer man. They have no display advertisement in this paper but prefer to show you the display of dress and dry goods in their elegant emporium of fashion and bargain bazar, which you will find on Main street should you visit that city. A mail request for samples, however, will bring you just what you desire in fashionable dress fabrics and you can make your selection and have the goods sent by mail or otherwise.

W. W. Reed, whose place of business is under the opera house at Mt. Sterling, has an illustrated advertisement in this issue to which the attention of farmers is directed. It tells its own story better than we can do it in type, and if you have grass or grain to reap or mow it will be well for you to read Reed's ad before you go to purchase an article in this line. He also carries a full and complete line of hardware and cutlery of every kind and makes a specialty of stoves and ranges. Mr. Reed has a very fine tobacco fertilizer that he is anxious to introduce into this section, and tobacco men who wish to produce an extra good crop should communicate with him before setting their plants.

Robert J. McLin and family, the latter consisting of his wife and baby, left here on Monday for Winchester, where they will permanently reside. Mr. McLin will be in charge of the Day Grocery Co. at that place, and to those who do not know him, we can say that Winchester does not, nor ever has, contained a better citizen in every respect. We commend both he and his good wife to the people of that beautiful little city, and feel confident that after a short residence there they will say their lives have fallen in pleasant places.

Sutton & Smith, of Mt. Sterling, have an ad in this paper to which the attention of our readers is respectfully directed. They handle furniture, carpets, curtains, rugs, etc., etc., and propose to sell as cheap as anybody. We have bought goods from them for years, and have always found them reliable. They occupy two rooms of Masonic Temple, each of which is 30x100 feet, and both of them are filled with goods, in their respective lines. Our people will find them nice gentlemen and their goods first class.

Mrs. Maggie Cassity, well known as a tasty trimmer in millinery and an artistic dressmaker, is now with Mrs. Lou Day, of this place, and will be pleased to attend to the wants of any who may need work in either line. Everything new in millinery is being constantly added, including the latest styles in hat and bonnet frames, and they will be trimmed up in any style desired, at the lowest price. Give her a call when in need of anything of the kind.

Spencer Cooper, of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, was here last week on his way home from a three weeks' trip. While in Cincinnati he purchased a Campbell cylinder press and other material for THE HERALD office. We are glad to note this evidence of prosperity on the part of our valued friend.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

The first mess of new potatoes of the season were brought to THE HERALD office last Friday morning, and were donated to the editor and his better- by Mrs. Lizzie Hauley and Miss Margaret Hauley. Many thanks, ladies, for your kind remembrance.

We occupy two rooms, 100 feet deep by 30 feet wide, and have them crowded full of goods at prices that will surprise you.—Sutton & Smith, Mt. Sterling.

Our carpet department is very large, and the very latest patterns, as well as the lowest prices. Sutton & Smith, Mt. Sterling.

We pay spot cash and can buy goods from 10 to 20 per cent cheaper than those who buy on time, and our customers get the benefit of it. Sutton & Smith, Mt. Sterling.

Rollin Kash and wife have gone to housekeeping in the old Trimble property, and he will devote his time to the duties of his position as police judge and the practice of law.

The handsome monument erected on the lot of Mr. J. G. Trimble in Macbeth cemetery, and which is said by many to be the handsomest piece of work in the cemetery, was furnished by the Owingsville Marble Co., which has secured orders here for a number of other handsome monuments.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Hugh Hicks, the carpet man of Lexington, has an ad in this paper to which the attention of the ladies is directed. Mr. Hicks has been in the carpet business for a lifetime and knows all about it. Buyers of carpets, therefore, have the advantage of his long experience, and they will find by using him that they get superior goods at less money than is ordinarily the case. We have known him a lifetime, and for him we can truly say that when he tells you a carpet is Brussels it will prove just so.

On Monday, April 30, at the home of her son Willie, Mary Agar, wife of the Rev. F. Agar, sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. She was well known in the mountains, where she helped her husband in the blessed mission work. She often spoke of the dear people of Maytown, and of their kindness to her, and also of her dear young people in the Sunday-school class, and would often say she would meet them in the New Jerusalem. To know her was to love her. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Yingling, assisted by Rev. A. Bradenbaugh, of Baltimore. Her sorrowing husband sends greeting. Her favorite hymn was:

In the rifted rock I'm resting
Safe, secure from all alarms;
When I'm passing through the river
Jesus bears me in his arms. —[A.]

Academy Notes.
Henry Murphy, of Maytown, is again in school.

W. H. Oliver is detained yet at his home near Flat by sickness.

E. W. McKinney will teach a school in Menefee county this year.

Morgan county has the largest representation in school this year. Several teachers now in attendance at school, hold first class certificates to teach.

The April number of the Academicist is out. Send us 25 cents and renew your subscription.

Our school has representatives from ten counties, four of which are blue-grass counties, viz: Clark, Montgomery, Fleming and Bath.

The daily session now begins at 7 a. m. and closes at 1 p. m., except the teachers' drill class and theory and art and elocution, which meets at 2 and continues until 3 p. m.

All boarders are required to study from 2 to 4 p. m., in their rooms, also from 8 p. m. till 10. Should persons see any boarders in town from 4 p. m. till 8, they will understand the reason.

There will be an elocutionary and musical recital by the pupils of Mr. Swango and Miss Robertson at the Academy chapel, Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Mr. Swango will deliver his World's Fair speech. Everybody invited. No admission fee charged. ACADEMITE.

MORGAN COUNTY NEWS.

Ezel Evolutions.
The prospects now are that there will be an average crop of late fruit in this locality.

Died, on the 29th ult., James Brooks. W. H. Nickell and Mrs. Lou Day were in town Sunday.

Miss Ann Eliza Pieratt, who has been attending school at West Liberty, is now at home, the school having closed.

It seems that the Peoples party has gone to seed, and the harvest is now fully ripe, and Coxe and others are coming, "bringing in the sheaves."

The Misses Cockrell, who have been successfully conducting a hotel at this place, recently made considerable improvements. By the direction of Miss Louisa all the buildings have been nicely repaired, while Miss Gene, among other splendid arrangements, has contracted for a lifetime supply of Rice, of extra weight and superior quality. The Rice was imported and was delivered promptly on time, and early last Wednesday, April 25, Rev. Manker, of Maytown, came down and collected the necessary revenue, performing the ceremony about half past seven. The new accessions to matrimony, John M. Rice and Miss Gene, at once left for their home at Louisa. It was a quiet wedding, and a surprise to most of our people, some of them not knowing it until they were married and gone. We understand that Mr. Rice has a position at the same place where they were to go about the first of this month. BLURT.

BUY THE Stempel Fire Extinguisher —AND— SAVE YOUR HOUSE FROM FIRE.

CHEAP, SIMPLE,
RELIABLE, HANDY.

Insurance may cover actual loss of goods burned but it does not pay for time and trade lost while re-establishing business. PREVENT THE FIRE WITH A STEMPEL

SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky., agent for Wolfe and Morgan Counties. Call and see the Little Wonder.

RACKET STORE, 11, 13 and 15 W. Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

The largest, cheapest and only Cash Store in Lexington. We want your trade and are prepared to show you the greatest selection of goods in the city. One large room devoted to shoes, a second room is filled with Dry Goods, Notions, etc., while in the third room we carry an immense stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc. To ascertain how many of the readers of this paper deal with us, we will allow a discount of 5 per cent to any customer bringing this advertisement when they deal with us. This offer good for two months only. Watch for prices in our new change.

J. D. PURCELL.

Begin the Year Right.

Let your first entry be a resolution not to buy until you have seen us for

Carpets,
Curtains,
Rugs,
Oil Cloths,
Mattings.

You will run no chance. Things are what they seem. There will be no disappointments in store for you.

HUGH HICKS,

MANAGER,

87 N. Broadway, LEXINGTON, KY.

Ed. MITCHELL,

—DEALER IN—

HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, TINWARE

And a Full Line of Agricultural Implements.

Mitchell Wagons, Owensboro Wagons, McCormick Binders and Mowers, Whiteley's Solid Steel Binders and Mowers, Repairs kept in stock for McCormick, Whiteley and Champion Machinery, Granger and Tiger Hay Rakes, Avery and Malta Double Shovel Plows.

The . Best . and . Cheapest . Cook Stoves . and . Ranges . on . the . Market.

Queensware at Cut-Throat Prices.

MANTELS AND GRATES.

ED. MITCHELL,

"The Farmers' Friend,"

North Maysville Street, : : Mt. Sterling, Ky.

As it is Springtime of course everyone will want to clean house and must have

A New Carpet or Matting, Window Shades or House Furnishing Goods.

Such as Bedroom Suits, Cheap Bedstead, Rockers, Pianos, Organs, Bureaus, Tables, Mattress and everything that you can find in a first-class Furniture House. We have the largest line of Carpets in Eastern Kentucky, and our Furniture is the latest and at rock bottom prices. Be sure to call and see us at MASONIC TEMPLE,

SUTTON & SMITH, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

TRIMBLE BROTHERS,

WHOLESALE : GROCERS,
MT. STERLING, KY.

Saturated With Coal Oil.
The Underwriters' Association of Cincinnati, Miller Building, S. W. Corner Third and Walnut Streets.

CINCINNATI, O., March 2, 1894.
The Cincinnati Tin and Japan Fire Extinguisher Co.

Gentlemen: The undersigned witnessed a practical test made by you of the Stempel Fire Extinguisher given in the rear of your building, southeast corner of Sycamore and Canal, Monday, February 28, 1894, the test being made with two gallons of rubber cement, liberally spread over pine boards; also a mixture consisting of varnish and benzine in barrels; also a structure built of pine wood, thoroughly saturated with coal oil, which was fired, and in a few moments blazing to a height of thirty-five feet, all of which was extinguished so quickly and thoroughly that we were completely and agreeably surprised. The test was of the most combustible materials with which fire may come in contact.

We most heartily endorse the Stempel Fire Extinguisher and take great pleasure in recommending same to the public who may desire to guard against fire.

Very respectfully,
[Signed:] Chas. E. Marshall, Secretary Underwriters' Ass'n, Cincinnati; Adam Gray & Co.; J. A. Townley, President Commercial Ins. Co.; Wm. H. Calvert, President Merchants and Manufacturers Ins. Co.; G. W. Pohlman, Pres. National Ins. Co.; Chapman, Johnson & Co., Agents Etna Ins. Co.; Jno. H. Law & Bros., Managers Royal Ins. Co.; F. A. Rother, President Eureka F. M. and Security Ins. Co.

SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky., Agent for Wolfe and Morgan counties.

A Cat on Her Chest.
A strange death occurred on Tuesday morning in Voluntown, twelve miles from this city. A Miss Wilson retired Monday night in perfect health with her aunt, Miss Fitch, who was awakened at about four o'clock on Tuesday morning by the cry of a pet cat that was on the girl's chest. Miss Fitch put the cat out of the room, but when she returned her niece was gasping for breath, and in a few minutes was dead. Two physicians were called, and the body looked so life-like that for several hours the doctors labored by artificial means to restore respiration. The medical examiner, Dr. Jennings, was called, and after carefully examining the body, gave orders that no funeral should be held till indications of decomposition should appear.—Norwich (Conn.) Special.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tisel, a prominent merchant of the town gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says she was well in forty minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by John M. Rose.

A Tough Negro.
On information from London, Laurel county, Sheriff Scobee and Deputy Stokely went out to Rankin station on the K. C. railroad, Sunday evening, and arrested a negro known here as Jake Williams. His right name is Pate Whitley. About eighteen months ago he killed a negro woman in Laurel county, and has since been a fugitive from justice. He has been in this country and was not taken without difficulty. At first he started to run, and the sheriff and his deputy fired eleven shots at him, one ball striking him in the back of the head and glancing upward. The negro fired three or four shots in return without effect, and then surrendered. Sheriff Scobee took him to London Monday.—Winchester Sun.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says: "For whooping cough Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

Georgia White Caps.
Eleven men, supposed to be white caps are on trial in the United States court at Atlanta, Ga., for several recent outrages. It is alleged that the prisoners are members of a secret league having a membership of 700 in George, Murray and Gilmore counties, the object of which is to protect illicit distilling. Within the last two weeks eight whippings and one assassination have been reported. During the fall and winter incendiary fires and attempts to murder deputy marshals were credited to this league. The government has undertaken to break up the organization. The defendants have 100 witnesses.

When to Howl.
Every report that comes of elections throughout our land show enormous Republican gains. We hope these encouraging reports will not turn the heads of Republicans. Getting into power is one thing, and using it to bring prosperity and honor is another. We do not want to do our Democratic friends, throw up their hats and rend the air with barbaric shouts of triumph after the election, and then at the end of the first year of power hang our heads in shame and admit that we have been unable to redeem our pledges. Let the hallooing be at the right end. "Let not him that putteth on the armor boast as him that taketh it off." When you have brought material prosperity back, reduced taxes, established trade, and confirmed our peace, then shout and not till then.—Winchester Sun.

Yes, you brought material prosperity, reduced taxes and established trade when you were in power before, didn't you? The fact of the business is, you got out of the undermined house just as it was about to fall, and we got in just in time to catch the falling timbers. But never mind, as soon as we get the debris and dust of us we will build a new and safer house, and then we'll do the shouting. It's no easy thing to clear away a lot of old lumber and erect a new building on the old foundation, using part of the old lumber to build the new house, and try to live in the old wreck until the new edifice is completed. This is what the Democrats are forced to do, and it's quite a difficult job.—Carlisle Mercury.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1235 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up in Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by John M. Rose.

High or Low Tarrif.
Until the civil war brought upon us the series of high tariffs that began with Morrill's and ended with McKinley's, the wealth of the United States was pretty evenly divided, not only as between north and south, east and west, but also as between the two great interests—agriculture and manufactures. The Democratic party had been in substantially continuous ascendancy in the government from the inauguration of Washington to that of Lincoln. Its leadership and legislation were all the time untainted with the corrupt influences of the great vested interests that are nowadays based on the protective system, and which, as Senator Voorhees justly said in speech opening the debate in the senate, have succeeded in placing "under the duress of a small majority" of that body.—Baltimore Sun.

In The Days of Our Grandmothers.
Sulphur and molasses reigned supreme in the spring time. Nowadays we take Humphreys' Specific No. 10 for dyspepsia and all stomach troubles, keeping the blood pure, so that no spring dosing is necessary. For sale by druggists.

Historic Character Gone.
Mrs. Jane Humphreys, a historic character, died at Columbus, Ohio, last week, aged 78 years. She was a cousin of the late Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy. Mrs. Humphreys' maiden name was Davis and she was born in North Wales in 1816. In 1840 she was married to Evan Humphreys and shortly afterward she and her husband came to America, stopping for a time at Utica, N. Y. About 1848 the couple located at Columbus. During the war Mrs. Humphreys won the everlasting gratitude of the union soldiers at Camp Chase by her kindness to the sick, to whom she paid almost daily visits and tenderly nursed them back to health. She always seemed proud, however, of her relationship to the late Jefferson Davis.

Love's Rosy Dream.
The story comes from Dover, Ky., that J. E. McKinley, aged thirty-five and Mrs. Mary Grove, eighty odd, will venture on the sea of matrimony. McKinley is a school-teacher from Ohio, and Mrs. Grove is the widow of Hon. Jerry Grove, a former mayor of Dover. She is wealthy and rumor has it that a marriage contract gives McKinley $6,000 cash and $1,000 per annum. McKinley was in Maysville and cashed Mrs. Grove's check for a round sum.

During the entire week, and until the entire lot is closed out, our 14k Solid Gold Fountain Pens go at $1 each, as long as they last. We have one of these pens filled ready for use. Call in and try it.
FRED J. HEINTZ, Manufacturing Jeweler.
Custom House Square, Lexington, Ky.

ENGLISH KITCHEN.

12 W. SHORT STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

Regular Meals, 25 cents. Meals to order at all hours. Breakfast from 5 to 9 a. m. Dinner from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Supper from 5 to 9 p. m.

Oysters, Lamb Fries, Fish and Chicken a Specialty.
GUS. LUIGART, Proprietor.

COMBS HOUSE, CAMPTON, KY.
J. B. HOLLON, PROPRIETOR.

The patronage of the traveling public is respectfully solicited. Table the best, and every attention to the comfort of guests.

ALLEN HOUSE, LEE CITY, KY.

The above house is now open to the public and the patronage solicited. Table the best, and every attention to the comfort of guests. Give me a call. C. B. ALLEN, Proprietor.

ST. JAMES HOTEL, Fourth Street, near Main, CINCINNATI, O.

GEO. WEBER'S SONS, Managers. The patronage of Wolfe and Morgan counties solicited.

HOTEL LELAND, Lexington, Ky. S. R. BROOKS, Proprietor.

New Building! Gas and Electric Light! Electric Elevator! Heated throughout with Hot Water. Rates, $2.00 a Day. Near business center and depot. Come and see me. Respectfully, S. R. BROOKS.

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS.

If you want new styles and the best goods, at bottom prices, you can always find them there at

CASSELL & PRICE'S, 16 and 18 West Main Street, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

MARLIN SAFETY Made in all styles and sizes. Lightest, strongest, easiest working, safest, simplest, most accurate, most compact, and most modern. For sale by all dealers in arms. Catalogues mailed free by The Marlin Fire Arms Co., NEW HAVEN, CONN., U. S. A.

REPEATING RIFLES

THE MILD POWER CURES. HUMPHREYS'

Dr. Humphreys' Specifics are scientifically and carefully prepared remedies, which have been in private practice and for over thirty years for the relief of all diseases of the human system, and are in fact and deed the Sovereign Remedy of the World.

NAME OF DISEASE.	CURE.	PRICE.
1-Fever, Congestive, Inflammations.
2-Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic.
3-Febrile Colic, Crises, Wakefulness.
4-Diarrhea, of Children or Adults.
5-Dysentery, of Children or Adults.
6-Cholera Morbus, Vomiting.
7-Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis.
8-Headaches, Toothache, Faciache.
9-Rheumatism, Stiff Neck, Headache, Vertigo.
10-Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation.
11-Flatulency or Painful Periods.
12-Whites, Too Profuse Periods.
13-Croup, Laryngitis, Hoarseness.
14-Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Eruptions.
15-Rheumatism, or Rheumatic Pain.
16-Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague.
17-Flies, Bites, or Blisters.
18-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
19-Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head.
20-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
21-Asthma, Oppressed Breathing.
22-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
23-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
24-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
25-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
26-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
27-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
28-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
29-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.
30-Whooping Cough, or Whooping Cough.

EXTRA NUMBERS:
31-Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, or Impotency. 1.00
32-Dysentery of the Heart, Palpitation. 1.00
33-Balloon, Spasms, Vitis, Lame. 1.00

SPECIFICS.

HUMPHREYS' WITCH HAZEL OIL "THE PILGRIM'S OINTMENT." For Piles—External or Internal. Blind or Bleeding; Pruritus in Anus; Itching or Bleeding of the Rectum. This Oil is manufactured in the most certain. PRICE, 40 CENTS. TRIAL SIZE, 25 CENTS. Sold at 10 cents, or sent postpaid on receipt of price. HUMPHREYS' MED. CO., 111 & 113 William St., New York.

GUTHRIE & WATSON, 18, 20 and 22 N. UPPER STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

MILLINERY AND DRESS MAKING. Grand Opening of Spring Dress Goods Every Day.

OUR CUSTOMERS recognize the fact that we are giving the best value and showing the largest assortment of New and Seasonable Dress Goods, Silks, Novelties, Velvets and Millinery of any house in Kentucky. Silks from China, India and Japan; such styles were never shown, such beauties were never seen, prices were never so low. See the great variety and novelty in our French Silks, Satin Duches, Moire Antique, Broades Stripes, Pann de Soie, Zanibars and Chamon effects. Have every weave known to the most famous makers in Europe. Our Grenadines are a specialty, and our patterns can be found nowhere else.

Our Spring Woolens are beautiful, and our importations are the latest, our stock the largest and most varied, our styles unequalled. Novelties in China and Japanese Draperies.

Embroideries, Laces and White Goods, Underwear, Corsets and Hosiery, India Linen, Dimity, Mulls, Pique, French and English Nainsooks, Embroidered Slaws.

Artistic patterns in wash materials, Duck Suitings, Galatea Cloths, Figured Corded Muslin, Zephyr Gingham, Real French Organdies, our own designs. Such a rarely beautiful selection of these lovely goods were never shown by one house before. Children's Gingham and Muslin Dresses, splendidly made, 6 months to 8 years.

Ready-made Eton Suits in black, tan and blue. Shirt Waists. Black Dress Goods, the best value, the best wearing, the most satisfactory are the Lupin weaves. We have One Hundred varieties to select from. Storm Serges are always ready. Imperial Corsets, Jacquards, Melrose, Henriettes, Cropons and Granite Cloths. Spring Capes, cloth and lace. Spring Jackets, new styles, light in weight, low in price.

The largest stock of Jouvin Genuine Kid Gloves in all lengths, all colors, the finest made.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

The largest stock of Millinery Goods in Lexington. Specialties in Bonnets, Hats, Children's Caps, Flowers, Veilings, Ribbons. See our display of new things from Paris, London and New York.

DRESS MAKING DEPARTMENT.

Miss Orr has charge. The latest styles are given you, a perfect fit is assured. Wedding and street costumes made on short notice.

GUTHRIE & WATSON.

KEEP PERFECTLY STILL AND LISTEN TO US.

You must have goods and we must have money. We will guarantee a saving of 15 to 25 per cent to you on every purchase from us. We sell everything in the Dry Goods and Notion line. We sell Carpets, Oil Cloths and Window Shades at

CINCINNATI: PRICES! Lexington and Mt. Sterling prices not in it. We make cents' clothing to order at less than ready-made prices. We give elegant, guaranteed

SILVERWARE FREE!

To our customers. We'll give you the biggest inducements you ever got to trade with us. Try it this year.

THE GOLDEN RULE DRY GOODS STORE, Winchester, Ky. W. F. HILTON, Proprietor.

JAY-EYE-SEE 2:10. MR. J. I. CASE, (Hickory Grove Farm, home of Jay-Eye-See) writes, Wis., says: "After trying every known remedy, I removed a large film of two years standing, from a year old film, with three applications of QUINN'S OINTMENT." It is the best preparation I have ever used or heard of. I heartily recommend it to all Horsemen. We have hundreds of such testimonials. Price, $1.50 per bottle. Ask your druggist for it. If he does not sell it, send for it. W. B. EDDY & CO., Whitehall, N. Y. TRY IT.

THE HERALD is only $1 a year, and it is acknowledged to be the best local paper published in Kentucky. Subscribe now, and secure all the good things it will contain this year.